

A broadcast "content protection" flag in digital television broadcasts will do little if anything to prevent pirates. Fair use, innovation, and competition, however will suffer greatly. This will also make obsolete thousands of existing Digital TV tuners, forcing consumers to invest in new tuners or TVs if they want to receive digital broadcasts. A propriety system like this one will also prevent the development of opensource Digital TV tuning software. Please DO NOT mandate a broadcast flag.